

HIS
15. August 2018

Phrase	Correction
1. The younger brother of my father	My father's younger brother
2. The farmers were using very bad stuff to grow them up.	The farmers were using dangerous/toxic substances to raise them.
3. I will keep attention to...	I will pay attention to
4. They are allowed to be 24 hours kept	They are allowed to be kept for 24 hours
5. I was hiding myself in the corner	I was hiding in the corner
6. I ran as if my life would depend on it	I ran as though my life depended on it
7. in the hope to find him	in the hope of finding him in the hope that they would find him
8. She wanted to get children.	She wanted to have children. She wanted to bear children. (formal)
9. The best thing that happens to me this summer	The best thing that happened to me this summer
10. He lived in a quite small village	He lived in quite a small village—BUT The village in which he lived was quite small .
11. He was giving headaches to his family.	He was giving his family headaches.
12. He was a real pain to his family.	He caused real pain to his family. (Major difference in meaning!)
13. This is something we should do always.	This is something we should always do.
14. Let me give you some advices. Let me give you an advice.	Let me give you some advice Let me give you a piece/bit of advice.
15. Let me come back straight to the point.	Let me come straight back to the point.